

MARVEL

SPIDER-SENSE SPIDER-MAN

IT'S LIGHTS OUT WHEN ELECTRO

STARRING

Marvelous Mia

Spider-Man and Marvelous Mia have come to the city's power plant because something strange is going on.

Yikes! My spider-sense is tingling big time, Marvelous Mia.

Yeah, and with good reason. Look at all those bolts of electricity shooting out of the power plant.

Inside the power plant.

If New York City wants its lights turned back on again it'll cost them one billion dollars.

We better put a stop to him. You take him head on and I'll come in through the back and surprise him.

Shocked to see me?

It's Electro. He's causing a power outage.

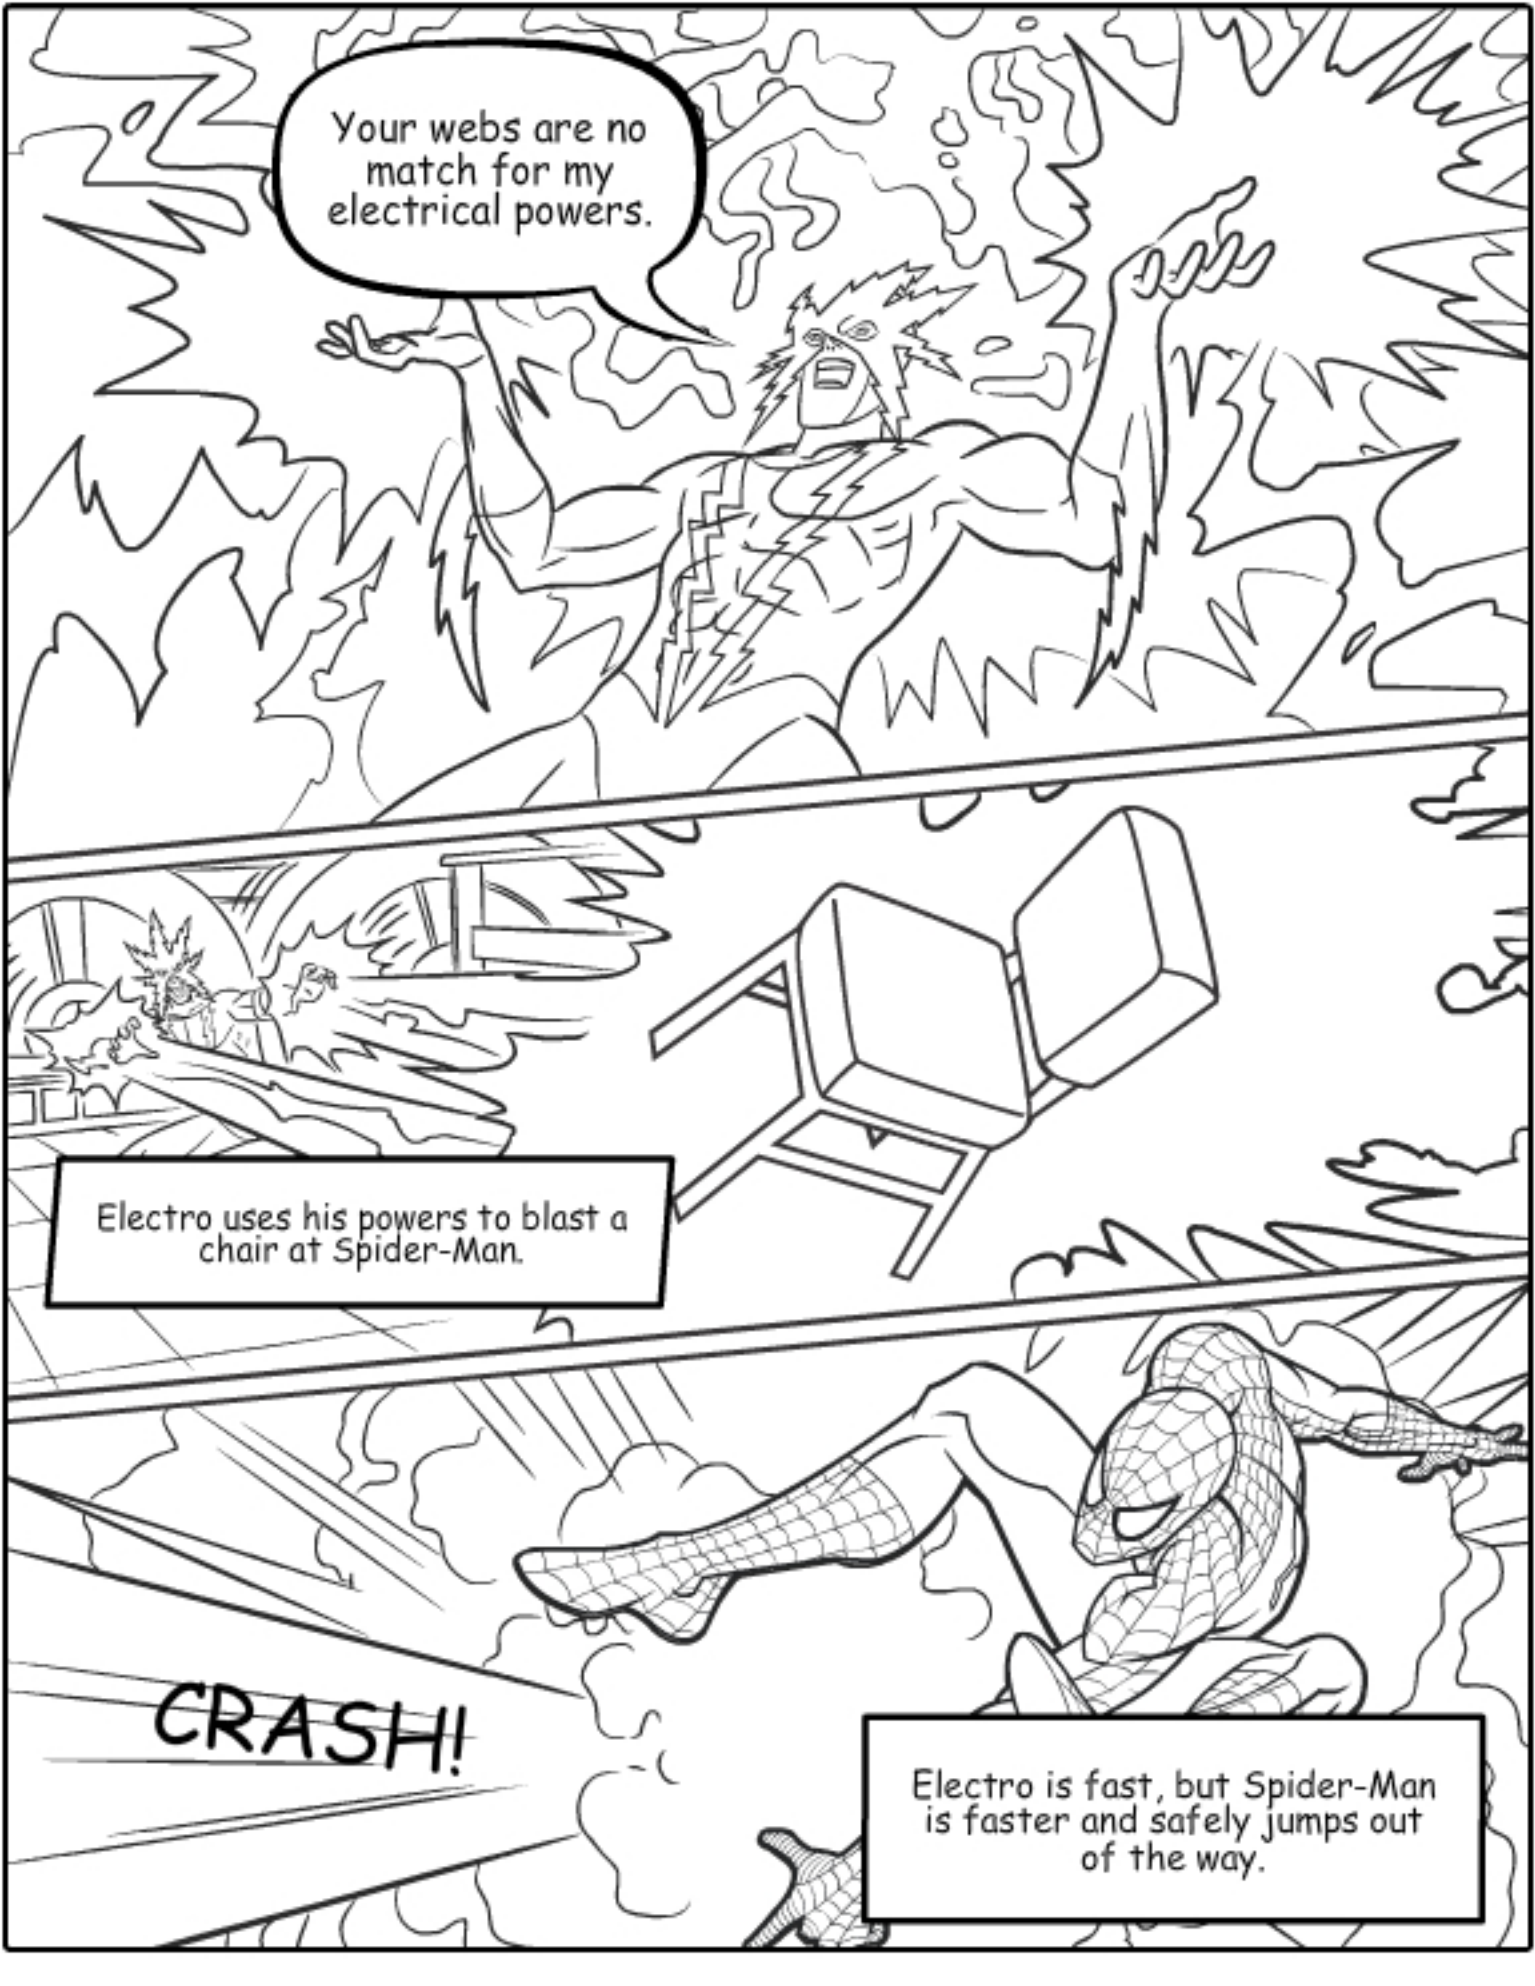

Spider-Man?!

A black and white line drawing of Spider-Man in a dynamic pose, dodging a large, round ball of webbing. The ball is suspended in the air and has a face-like shape with two large, empty eye sockets. Spider-Man is on the left, wearing his iconic suit and mask, with his body angled away from the viewer. He is holding a strand of web in his right hand. The background shows a tiled floor and some structural elements of a building. A speech bubble from Spider-Man is in the top left, and another from the villain is in the bottom right. The villain is a large, muscular figure with a wild, spiky hairstyle and a determined, somewhat crazed expression. He is wearing a simple tank top and pants. The overall style is that of a classic comic book illustration.

Whoa! Just missed me.
This ball of webbing should slow you down.

THWIP!

I'll show you what it means to be shocked, Spider-Man.

Your webs are no match for my electrical powers.

Electro uses his powers to blast a chair at Spider-Man.

CRASH!

Electro is fast, but Spider-Man is faster and safely jumps out of the way.

Hey, Electro, it's lights out for you. Time to surrender.

I don't think so.

See you later, losers.

Electro jumps on the roof of a passing fire engine to escape.

No. He can't get far in the heavy traffic.

He's getting away!

Trying to lose us in a crowd won't work.

Do us all a favor and give up.

Back off.

Electro uses his powers to knock over a newsstand to slow down Spider-Man and Marvelous Mia.

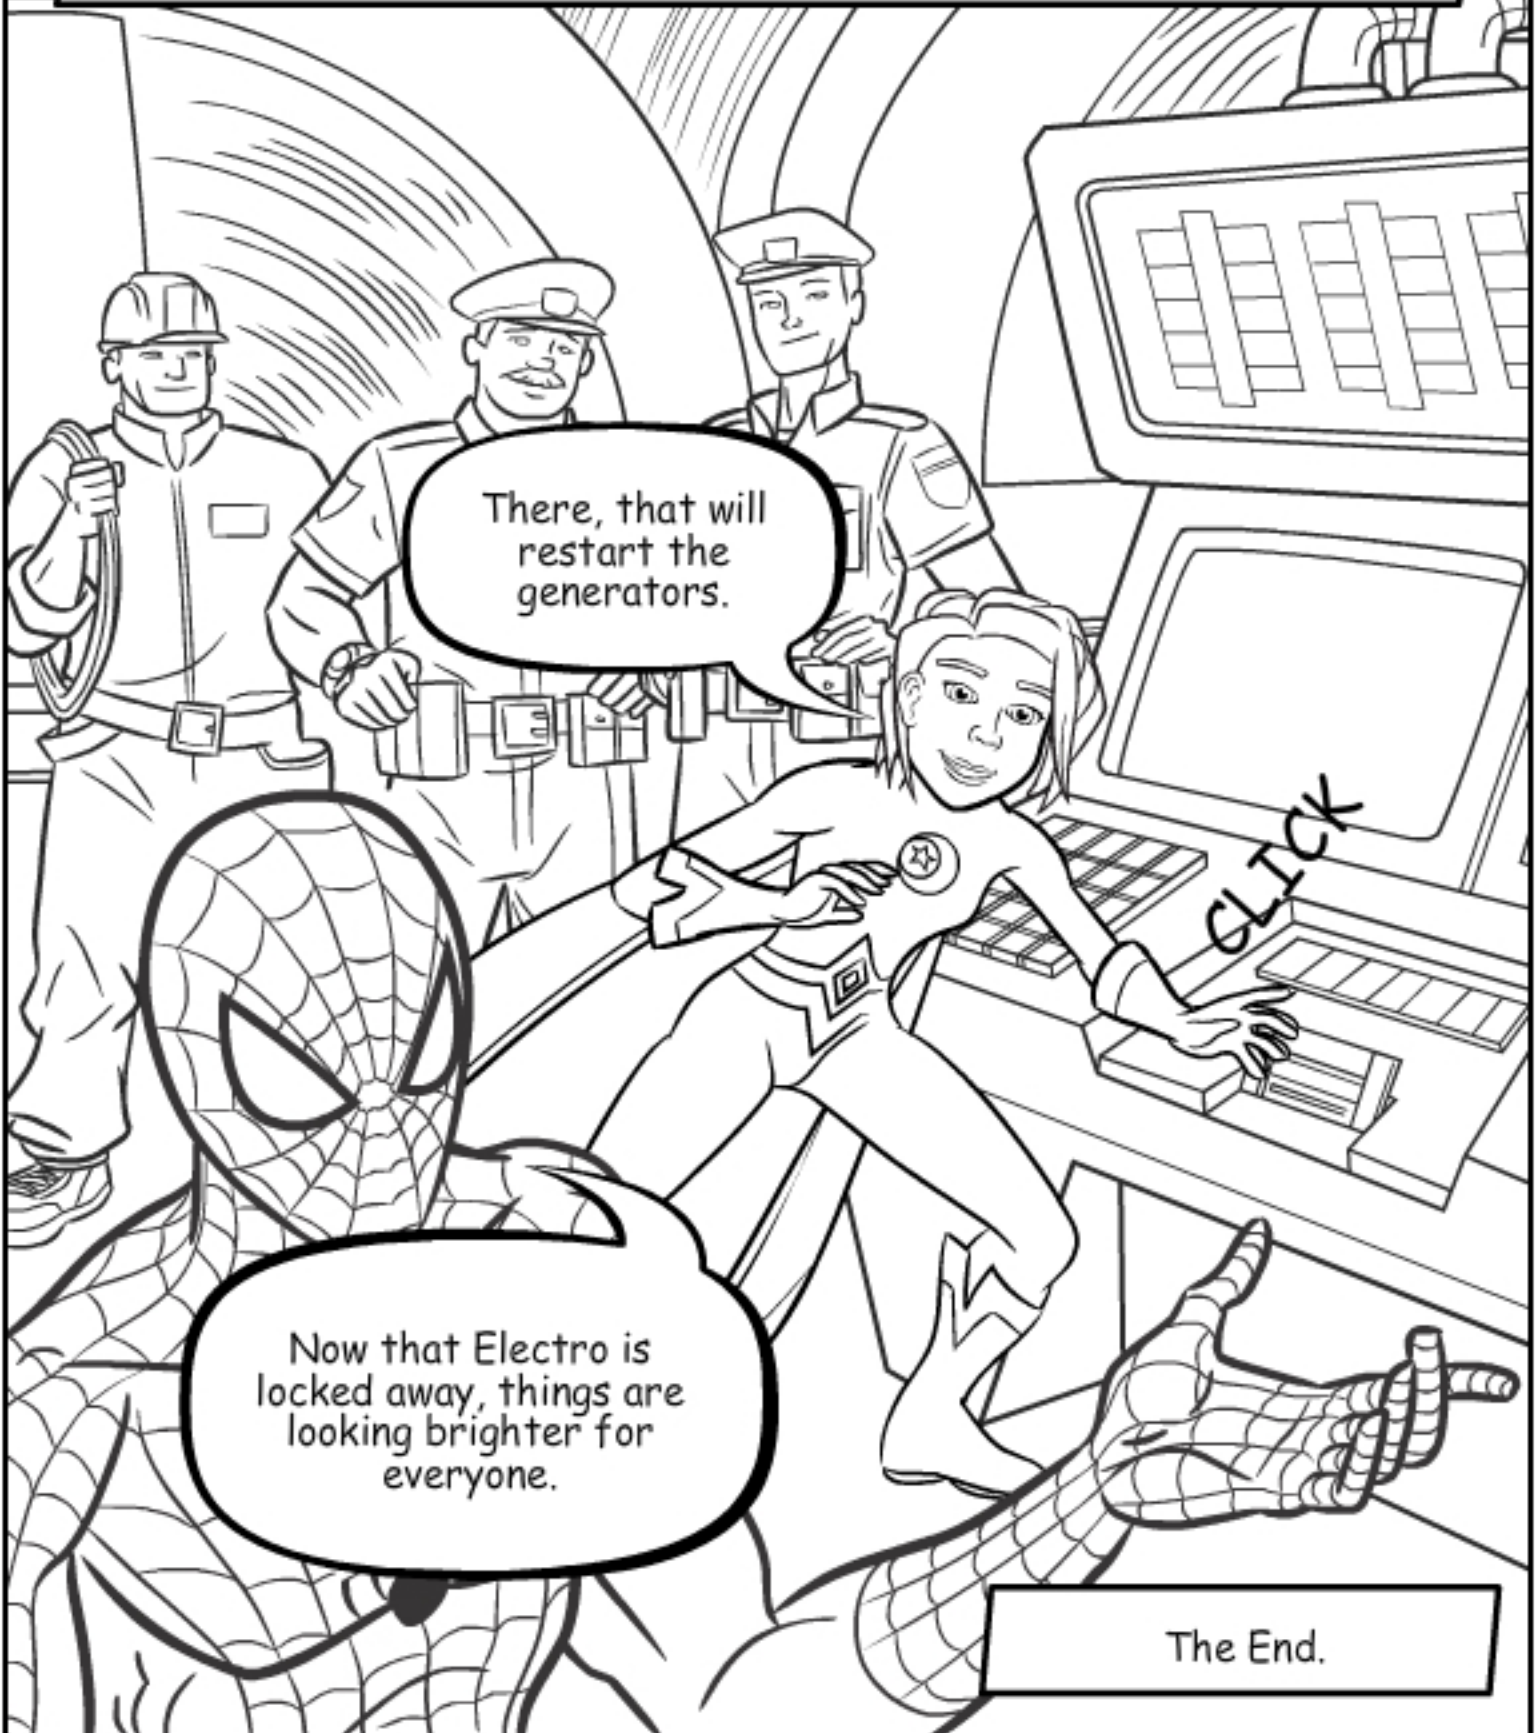

CRASH!

Spider-Man uses his webbing to catch everything that Electro throws his way.

After Electro has been taken to jail, Spider-Man and Marvelous Mia help turn the lights back on in the city.

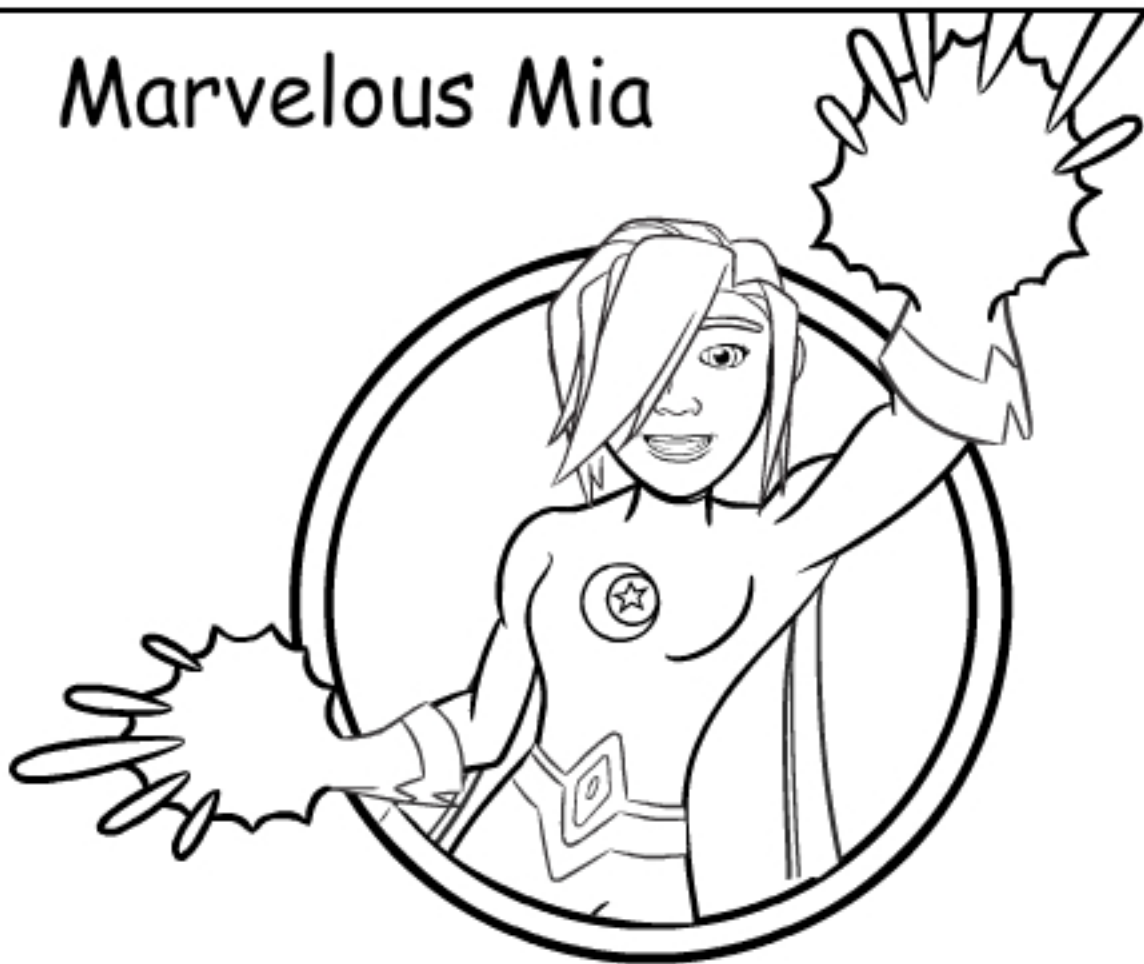

A black and white line drawing of Spider-Man and Marvelous Mia in a control room. Spider-Man is in the foreground, looking towards the right. Marvelous Mia is sitting at a desk with a computer, typing on a keyboard. The word "CLICK" is written vertically next to her hand. In the background, three men in uniforms are standing. One man is holding a coiled hose. A speech bubble from the man in the middle says "There, that will restart the generators."

There, that will restart the generators.

Now that Electro is locked away, things are looking brighter for everyone.

The End.
